ALONG THE MISSOURI.

GREAT FALLS, May 5.—Society matters have been very quiet in this city during the last three weeks. The stoppage of railroad traffic, closing down of mines and smelters and the general paralysis of business has had a tendency to make matters look serious, and few people had inclination to engage in gayeties of any description. Now, however, things have assumed a brighter hue, and society people will more thoroughly enjoy entertainments of a social nature.

Tuesday evening the Caledonian club gave a social at Eika's hall that proved to be a pleasant affair, and those present report an enjoyable evening. There was instrumental music by Mr. Shiels, an historical sketch of early days in Scotland by Chief J. R. McKenzie, addresses by Messrs. Dan McKay, Burrell of Sand Coulee and others; solos by Messrs.
